

Watertown Township 2024 Income and Asset Guidelines for Poverty Exemption

Overview: Section 211.7u of the Michigan General Property Tax Act provides for a property tax exemption, in whole or part, for the principal residence of persons who, by reason of poverty, are unable to contribute to the public charges.

Watertown Township Board of Trustees adopts a policy which includes an asset and income test. The Board of Review shall follow the policy of the local assessing unit in granting or denying an exemption. If a person meets all eligibility requirements then the Board of Review shall grant a full exemption equal to a 100% reduction in taxable value or a partial exemption equal to a 25%, 50%, or 75% reduction in taxable value.

A taxpayer who files for a poverty exemption at the March Board of Review is not prohibited from also filing an appeal on the assessment and/or taxable value at the March Board of Review. A taxpayer may also file a poverty exemption with the July or December Boards of Review. A taxpayer may appeal a poverty exemption denial to the Michigan Tax Tribunal.

Requirements to apply for Poverty:

1. The applicant must own and occupy as their principal residence the property for which the exemption is being claimed. The property cannot be owned by a business entity.
2. The applicant must file a fully complete application which includes Forms 5737 and 5739 and all required and requested tax returns and documentation – see attached list.
3. The applicant must meet the "Income Guidelines" which are the federal poverty guidelines updated annually by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.
4. The applicant must meet the "Asset Guidelines" as approved by the Watertown Township Board of Trustees.

Income Guidelines:

The income guidelines shall include, but are not limited to, the specific income for the person claiming the exemption and should also include anyone else who is residing there. Meeting the income level of the Township policy does NOT guarantee the approval of a poverty exemption. Both income and assets are reviewed by the Board of Review in the decision making process.

The applicant must meet the income eligibility guidelines as defined and determined by Public Act 390 of 1994. These guidelines are adjusted annually as established by said Act. Following are the federal standards as of January 15, 2024 for household income deemed to be at the poverty threshold. For use in setting poverty exemption guidelines for 2024 assessments. In order to qualify for tax relief, the applicant's household income from all sources must be at or below the following amounts:

Size of Family Unit	Poverty Guidelines
1	$14,580
2	$19,720
3	$24,860
4	$30,000
5	$35,140
6	$40,280
7	$45,520
8	$50,560

For each additional person add $5,140

➤ Meeting the income levels above, but failing the asset portion of the exemption, will result in a denial of the poverty exemption.

Income includes:

- Money, wages, salaries before deductions, and regular contributions from persons not living in the residence
- Net receipts from non-farm and farm self-employment (receipts from a person's own business, professional enterprise, or partnership, after business expense deductions)
- Regular payments from social security, railroad retirement, unemployment, worker's compensation, veteran's payments, public assistance, and supplemental security income (SSI)
- Alimony, child support, military family allotments
- Private and governmental retirement and disability pensions, regular insurance, annuity payments
- College or university scholarships, grants, fellowships, and assistantships
- Dividends, interest, and net income from rentals, royalties, estates, trusts, gambling or lottery winnings

Asset Guidelines Used in the Determination of Poverty Exemptions for 2024

As required by PA 390 of 1994, all guidelines for poverty exemptions as established by the governing body of the local assessing unit SHALL include an asset level test.

The purpose of an asset test is to determine the resources available: Cash, fixed assets or other property that could be converted to cash and used to pay property taxes in the year the poverty exemption is filed. The value of the principal residence is not included in the asset test.

The following asset test shall apply to all applications for poverty exemption:

- The applicant's household shall not have "liquid" (cash) assets in excess of $7,500,
AND
- The applicant's household shall not have total assets (cash and non-cash assets – see list below) in excess of $20,000.

Household assets greater than what is stated above will result in a denial of the poverty exemption, even if the applicant meets the Income Guideline. The Board of Review may deny any application if the assets are not properly identified.

Cash and other non-cash assets considered may include but are not limited to:

- Bank Accounts
- Stocks and bonds, pensions, IRAs and other investment accounts
- Withdrawals of bank deposits and borrowed money
- Gifts, loans, lump-sum inheritances and one-time insurance payments
- Money received from the sale of property such as stocks, bonds, a house or a car (unless a person is in the specific business of selling such property)
- Second home, rental property, or building/property other than the residence
- Excess or vacant land
- Extraordinary automobiles
- Recreational vehicles such as campers, motor-homes, boats and ATV's
- Equipment or other personal property of value
- Food or housing received in lieu of wages and the value of food and fuel produced and consumed on farms

Applicants are asked to provide completed checklist with their completed application:

- Please submit copies only, not originals. Anything submitted will not be returned.
- If one of the items below does not apply, please write "N/A" (not applicable) to indicate the applicant does not have anything to provide for that item.
- This checklist must be returned with the application forms.

- ☐ W-2 or 1099, or any final value statement used for income taxes for all income sources for the past year.
- ☐ Copy of both Federal and State income tax returns.
